

Great journalism. Great company.

Sherrie Marshall, executive editor

The Telegraph
Macon, Georgia

With 31 daily newspapers in 15 states, McClatchy journalists have plenty of opportunity for career advancement and professional mentoring along the way.

Sherrie Marshall has been executive editor of The Telegraph since 2001. She is responsible for the entire newsroom operation of the 58,000-circulation daily and takes pride in working with the young reporters and editors on her staff.

It's all part of creating a leading news company for the 21st century. That's why McClatchy looks to NABJ and similar organizations to help ensure that talented professionals always are available.
