The Olympian
Olympia, Washington

Tony Overman spent several weeks in Iraq last fall covering local Washington troops serving in Baghdad and Mosul. Journalists at every McClatchy paper have the opportunity to cover the biggest stories of our time and help make sense of events for readers back home.

It's all part of creating a leading news company for the 21st century. That's why McClatchy looks to NAHJ and similar organizations to help ensure that talented professionals always are available.
